Active Members Enjoy Many Benefits Including:

- Access to a multitude of resources related to flavor safety, global regulatory status and trends, updates on science and advocacy tailored to the flavor industry, and more.
- Opportunities to participate in global flavor industry strategy development and implementation.
- Ability to network with industry colleagues, while sharing their expertise in service to the industry.
- Being part of a vibrant and effective organization committed to ingredient safety and the global harmonization of flavor regulations to ensure business success.

If you already belong to IOFI but haven't maximized your membership, consider the following:

- ✓ Visit www.iofi.org today. Request a username and password to access the IOFI Member Network.
- ✓ Explore the site and learn more about the organization and the people who make IOFI work.
- ✓ Read recent issues of IOFI Insight and Member Network papers about IOFI science and advocacy to understand how IOFI is uniquely positioned to address global challenges.

- ✓ Search the Member Network for topics of relevance to your work.
- ✓ Review the lists of members of the various committees. Contact them to learn more about their IOFI work.
- ✓ Familiarize yourself with information available to you as a member, including Documentation Bulletins that provide updates on recent scientific literature and patents related to the flavor industry and Information Letters that bring members up-to-date on topics of global importance.
- ✓ Access the Global Reference List and talk about it with those within your organization who would benefit most from this valuable tool.
- ✓ Read the IOFI Code of Practice and share a sense of pride in the industry's efforts to safeguard members' intellectual property, along with a focus on safety for employees, customers and consumers.
- ✓ Sign up for access to the IOFI Database and make sure those in R&D and regulatory affairs within your organization are familiar with this resource.
- ✓ Determine if your skills may be useful in a volunteer capacity in one of the many IOFI committees and working groups that contribute so much to IOFI's success. Make your interest known to your company management and local flavor association.
